The facts of the Case appear to be as Hows 5

1) A petition having been Presented
The District Magte Bangalore from one Bhajelly, on 14. 12. 1925. an order was passed 20th Dec 1926 for the recommendations of the Dist. Supt of Police, appointing Mr. H. Rangajelly (the Present Petr in the Case) to manage the affairs of the Gonadi, and to maintain accounts of receipt and expenditure. On the appeal of Mr. Nimbajelly the alleged owner and the present Petr the order was found to be illegal and he was advised to Cancel the order originally passed But the property that was disposed in pursuance of the original order was not restored back to Nimbajelly Dist. Magte in his Endorsement to Mr. Rangajelly states that previous order of this office is Cancelled as it is Considered that the question regarding the management of the property is one for adjudication by a Civil Court to effect a settlement of the dispute between the parties if practicable. Dist. Mag.te has stated in his report that the parties are not willing to have the dispute settled amicably.

Mr. Ranga Reddy the present deft. holds the property as a trespasser, and he is prepared to hand it over to any person declared by a Competent authority as entitled to it. (Vide his petition dated 9th Dec 1929)

Under these circumstances the present Suit brought by Ranga Reddy in whose favour it may be implied that Govt. are pleased to order the proceedings is hardly worthwhile to be prolonged any longer. The records called for from the D.C. may also be awaited.

11) This suit relates to the management of Doddaparadi in Gudemaranahalli, Bangalore city. The District magistrate passed an order on 20/12/1926 appointing the 1st deft Ramappa as manager of the Garad & put him possn of the premises. On appeal, it was found that the order was one without jurisdiction & the D.M cancelled the same on 15th march 1928, but he could not ~~put the persons dispossessed in~~ restore status quo, since the question of possession was one to be settled by the Civil Courts. As the D.C could not right the wrong done, Govt decided to leave the threatened suit against the D.C to take its course. (Vide Secy's note, dated 6/2/30 in Pdl 242-29, 1-4). The suit is now filed & the 2nd def who is the 2nd defendant in the suit wants the Pltf to defend him

apparently at Govt Cost

The plaint prays for a decree directing the 2nd deft as well as the 1st to put plaintiff in possn & costs against 2nd deft also. It is not a suit for damages for wrongful dispossession by the 2nd deft; for in that case the suit cannot be maintainable against the successor in office (18 Mys CCR 92, Mallappa vs Dt Judge) ~~Dc~~ The Dt Magte is not admittedly in possn & therefore no decree as prayed for can be granted against him. The Dt magte therefore is not at all a necessary party to the suit & cannot therefore be liable for costs. If costs are asked in lieu of compensation, then again the cause of action is tort & the ~~Dc~~ ruling in 18 MCCR 92 applies. Reg I of 1912 (Jud[l] officers Prot[n] Act) may also perhaps be pleaded in defence.

(3) Under the circs the defence of the suit may perhaps be sanctioned & the P.P. asked to prepare a W.S.

The fact of the case are as follows

The getty Community through its representatives filed a suit in the Munsiffs court Bangalore and a compromise decree was passed to the effect that the property in dispute belongs to the Community and that on behalf of the Community the plaintiff became the trustee manager of the property in 1888. In 1925 one of the getty filed a complaint before the District Magistrate (not as Deputy Commissioner) that the properties were mismanaged and that an educated man may be appointed as manager of the properties The then District Magistrate caused enquires to be made through the police as regards the allegations made in the complaint and as the result of the enquires he was pleased to order the Government with an appeal. The Government was pleased to observe that this is a matter for adjudication by civil courts. The District Magistrate while cancelling the order appointing the first defendant as manager could not give possession to the plaintiff Hence this suit

The point that arises for consideration is. What authority had the District Magistrate

From

The Chief Secretary to Government of His Highness

To

The Public Prosecutor,
B a n g a l o r e.

I am directed to return herewith duly approved the draft written statement to be filed on 5th January 1931 in O.S.No. 196/30-31 on the file of the First Munsiff Bangalore (Nimbajetty Vs. 1. Rangajetty 2. District Magistrate) sent with your letter No 271/30-31 dated 26th December 1930.

I am to observe that the plaint prays for a decree directing the 2nd defendant as well as the 1st to put plaintiff in possession and costs against the 2nd defendent also. It is not a suit, for damages for wrongful dispossession by the 2nd defendent, for in that case the suit cannot be maintainable against the successor in office (18 Mys.CCR 92)

The District Magistrate is admittedly not in possession and therefore no decree as prayed for can be granted against him. He is not a necessary party to the suit as brought and cannot therefore be liable for costs. If costs are claimed as compensation, then again the cause of action is ~~tort~~ tort and the ruling in 18 Mys C.C.R. 92 applies.

Defendants

1. Ranga gelly
2. District Magistrate, Bangalore

The plaintiff begs to file his reply to the 2nd defendant's written statement as follows:-

1. The plaintiff reaffirms all the allegations of the plaint.

2. The suit is maintainable against the second defendant

3. The allegations of para 2 and 3 of the written statement are false. The plaintiff is not aware of any petition filed by Subbagelly. The institution was well managed by the plaintiff since 1888. No enquiry was made by the District Magistrate as alleged. The order passed by him was an ex-parte one. The District Magistrate had no power to pass such an order and it is illegal and does not bind the plaintiff. The first defendant was not better qualified for the management even if true, the District Magistrate could not over look the hereditary rights of the plaintiff which had been decided by this very

Court in ~~[illegible]~~ OS 588 of 1988. in his favour. The said judgment and decree are binding on all persons in the world, since it has not been set aside till today. The plaintiff is prepared to prove his title and right to the management of the garadi.

4. The pleading in para 4 of the written statement is self contradicting. It is through the second defendant, that plaintiff lost possession and therefore he was bound to put the plaintiff in possession once again after the cancellation of his order by Government. The plaintiff was repeatedly pressurising the second defendant and his subordinates after the Government order, to put him in possession of garday which he was bound to do to maintain status quo, as per law but failed to do. The plaintiff does not admit that the matter had to be decided by a civil court between him and the first defendant, before he was dispossessed by the second defendant. The second the Plaintiff had to restore it and if need be, had to force the 1st defendant to a civil suit and not the plaintiff there is no equity or law in favour of this defendant

5. The plea of the 2nd defendant in para 4 of his written statement is not tenable. Inspite of the order of the Government he refused to put the plaintiff in possession, even though he could have done it.

6. Both the defendants have colluded together to defraud the plaintiff

7. The allegation of para 8 of the written statement is false no enquiry was made by the second defendant He was fully aware of the rights of the plaintiff. and he had no jurisdiction over this matter Inspite of all this and malafide the 2nd defendant dispossessed the plaintiff. Hence he is liable to restore possession to plaintiff. The second defendant therefore cannot plead protection under any law reply and not admitted by the plaintiff are false and do not bind him.

Wherefore the plaintiff prays for a decree as prayed for Serial No. 1.

2. District Magistrate, Bangalore

Second defendants' petition under order 14. Rule 2 of the civil procedure code.

In this case it is necessary to have the preliminary point of law argued and decided before evidence is heard in the case on issues of facts.

The second defendant therefore prays that the case may be posted for argument before the next date of hearing on the point whether plaintiff has cause of action against the second defendant and is entitled to costs against him, since the point is one of law under the circumstances alleged in the plaint and in second defendants' defence.

The plaintiff begs to file his objections to Serial no 1. filed by the 2nd defendant as follows:

1. The preliminary point of law as per para 2 of the petition as to whether the plaintiff has cause of action against the 2nd defendant and is therefore entitled to costs from him is a matter which depends on evidence that has to be recorded in the suit

2. The pleadings amply bear out that the 2nd defendant who dispossessed the plaintiff had to restore possession but wantonly failed to do so. It is a matter of fact and evidence has to be let in to prove the fact

3. Unless evidence is recorded in detail the whole truth cannot be found out.

4. Wherefore in the interest of justice. it is necessary to record evidence on all matters and then decide the issues framed in the suit.

Wherefore, the plaintiff prays that this petition may be dismissed.

Original Suit No 196 of 1930 1931

Dated this the 4th day of March, 1932

Present:- M. Sreekantaiya Rao Esquire,

M.A., B.L., Fourth Munsiff, Bangalore.

Plaintiff Nimbe Setty

Defendants: 1. Ranga Setty & 2. District Magistrate Bangalore.

Order regarding application I.A. No. IV.

This is an application under order 41 rule 27 of Civil procedure code, filed by the 2nd defendant praying that two additional issues may be framed and that these issues be disposed of before proceeding further evidence. These two additional issues are (1) whether the suit as framed against the to this case. According to second defendant first defendant was in possession till he was actually dispossessed by them and till possession was given to 2nd defendant

I therefore, find on the 4th issue, that the suit as brought is maintainable and the provision of 92 of Civil procedure Code does not apply to this case

The next point for consideration is whether the District Magistrate as such can be sued. Second defendant is sued by virtue of his office. The person that holds the office of the District Magistrate has not been added as a party. Second defendant that case that Section 79 to 82 of Civil procedure code, & order 27 of Civil procedure code, do not contemplate the suit being brought against the office as distinguished from the individual for the time being, holding the office

Following the decision of the Bombay High Court, I have to hold that the suit as brought against the office of the district magistrate is not maintainable the person who holds the position of the district magistrate, as such, should have been impleaded as a party to this suit.
